

Complaints

This firm is committed to providing a high standard of client care at all levels. However, should there be any aspect of our service which we are unable to resolve for you, you may raise the matter with our Principal, Vincenza Perkins who will investigate the circumstances within 7 days of receipt of your complaint and provide a substantive response and recommendations for resolving the matter within 14 days. A copy of the firm's complaints procedure is detailed below. Making a complaint will not affect how we handle your case.

The Solicitors Regulation Authority can help you if you are concerned about our behaviour. This could be for things like dishonesty, taking, or losing your money, or treating you unfairly because of your age, a disability or other characteristic.

You can raise your concerns with the Solicitors Regulation Authority.

Complaints Handling Procedure

We are committed to providing a high-quality legal service to all our clients. When something goes wrong, we need you to tell us about it. This will help us to improve our standards. If at any point you become unhappy with the service we provide to you or you have concerns about your bill, then you should inform us immediately so that we can do our best to resolve the problem for you.

If you have a complaint, please contact us with the details.

What will happen next?

1. We will send you a letter acknowledging receipt of your complaint within three days of receiving it, enclosing a copy of this procedure.
2. We will then investigate your complaint. This will normally involve passing your complaint to our principal, Vincenza Perkins, who will review your matter file and, if appropriate, speak to the member of staff who acted for you.
3. Vincenza Perkins will then either speak with you and/or invite you to a meeting to discuss and hopefully resolve your complaint. She will do this within 14 days of sending you the acknowledgement letter.
4. Within three days of the conversation or meeting, Vincenza Perkins will write to you to confirm what took place and any solutions she has agreed with you.
5. If you do not want a meeting or it is not possible or considered necessary, Vincenza Perkins will send you a detailed written reply to your complaint, including her suggestions for resolving the matter, within 21 days of sending you the acknowledgement letter.
6. If we are unable to resolve your complaint within eight weeks after you have brought it to our attention, then you can have the complaint independently looked at by the Legal Ombudsman. The Legal Ombudsman investigates complaints about poor service from lawyers.

The Legal Ombudsman can investigate complaints up to six years from the date of the problem happening or within three years of when you found out about the problem. If you wish to refer your complaint to the Legal Ombudsman this must be done within six months of our final response to your complaint. The contact details for the Legal Ombudsman are as follows:

- Website: www.legalombudsman.org.uk
- Email: enquiries@legalombudsman.org.uk
- Telephone: 0300 555 0333 between 8.30am to 5.30pm
- For minicom: call 0300 555 1777
- In writing: Legal Ombudsman, PO Box 6806, Wolverhampton WV1 9WJ

Do not send original documents to the Legal Ombudsman. They will scan any documents you send to make digital copies and then destroy the originals.

7. If we have to change any of the timescales above, we will let you know and explain why.

8. We will not charge you for handling your complaint.

If you are unclear about any of the above matters please do not hesitate to contact us.
